SECOND HALF SESSION REGISTRATION
SLATED FOR JULY 16-20 AT UM

MISSOULA--

Registration for the second half-session of summer classes at the University of Montana will be conducted Monday through Friday (July 16-20) on the Missoula campus.

Emma B. Lommasson, UM registrar, said students planning to enroll may pick up their registration packets as early as Monday (July 16) at the UM Registrar's office, Lodge 201, although the second four and one-half week session does not formally begin until Thursday (July 19).

After picking up their packets, students should request their respective instructors to sign program request cards, pay their fees at the UM Business office in the Lodge and return the packets to the Registrar's office.

Graduate students must secure the approval of the UM Graduate School to obtain graduate credit for their respective courses.

A total of about 2,260 students are attending classes, workshops and seminars during the first half-session, which ends Wednesday (July 18).

Additional information concerning registration may be obtained by phoning the Registrar's office, 243-5811.
